3.4 Power of Attorney
Power of Attorney	The use of a Power of Attorney must be approved by NewRez’s Legal teams. Generally, a Power of Attorney may be used for closing in the following scenarios: Incapacitated Borrower - the borrower is incapacitated and therefore unable to sign documents due to disability, legal incapability, or he/she lacks the physical ability; Incapacitated borrowers must occupy the property as their primary residence; the underwriter must validate occupancy and review for red flags within the loan file; Example: verify the signer of the POA is not acting as a straw buyer or purchasing an investment property utilizing the incapacitated borrower’s credit. Military Personnel - the borrower is currently deployed or stationed overseas and is unable to sign documents or attend closing; Hardship Circumstance - the borrower is unable to attend closing because he/she is out of the state or country for an extended period, bedridden, in the hospital with a serious illness, or the borrower is incarcerated. POA will not be permitted for borrowers that are on vacation Government Contractor – the borrower is employed by the government and currently working overseas A letter from the borrower’s employer is required to verify overseas travel Business Travel – permitted on Purchase and Rate/Term Refinance transactions when the spouse has Power of Attorney for the traveling borrower. There are four (4) acceptable types of power of attorney. The following persons may sign security instruments on a borrower’s behalf: Attorney-in-fact - he/she may sign the security instruments as long as NewRez obtains a copy of the POA. In some jurisdictions the POA must be recorded with the security instrument; in this case, NewRez must confirm the document has been recorded. The person acting as the attorney-in-fact must have a familial, personal or fiduciary relationship with the borrower and can’t have any type of financial interest in the transaction or be involved in the transaction in any capacity such as the closing agent / attorney, broker or realtor;

Back to Top

	Specific - this type of POA is specific to the mortgage transaction; therefore, the POA must specify the legal description, property address, and transaction type within the body of the document. It must be recorded at closing; Durable - traditionally a POA becomes ineffective upon the disability of the principal but the POA must remain valid even if the borrower becomes incapacitated or disabled prior to closing. In order for the POA to be acceptable it must contain the following language 'This POA shall not terminate on the disability of the principal' or 'This POA is not affected by the subsequent disability of incapacity of the borrower'; General Military - this type of POA is generally used in situations where a borrower or his/her spouse may be deployed or is on active duty. All loan files wishing to utilize a power of attorney require the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A Letter of Explanation from the borrower advising why the loan is closing with a POA</li> <li>• Completed and Signed POA Form</li> </ul>

- Boarder income (relatives and non-relatives) is permitted on refinance transactions only up to 30% of qualifying income. Acceptable documentation is required for at least 9 of the most recent 12 months and is to be annualized over a 12-month period. Documentation of shared residency for the most recent 12-month period is required – see FNMA Boarder Income Requirements for additional details.
- Accessory unit rental income from a one-unit primary residence is permitted. Standard rental income documentation guidelines apply.
- Rental Income from Other Real Estate Owned
  - The use of rental income from other real estate owned requires evidence of the most recent two (2) months receipt of rental income for each rental property owned
  - In addition to the reserves required by DU, an additional three months reserves are required if the borrower owns an investment property and the rental income is being used to qualify.

Conversion of Primary Residence to a Second Home or Investment Property

- For conversion to a second home, the PITIA of the property must be used in qualifying.
- For conversion to an investment property, the PITIA of the property must be used in qualifying, unless rental income is being used to offset the payment.
- The following is required when using rental income to qualify:
- Additional six (6) months reserves (PITIA of the property being converted to a rental property) and
- Proof of receipt of security deposit and
- Proof of receipt of first month's rent if required by lease

Income Documentation: Income documentation requirements are outlined below. Refer to Fannie Mae Selling Guides for any areas not addressed

Wage Earner

- Most recent paystub including all year-to-date earnings dated no earlier than 30 days prior to the initial loan application date and most recent one- or two-years' W-2 as required by DU/LPA (W-2 transcripts are permissible in lieu of W-2s); or
  - Income validation obtained through DU Validation Service; or
  - Written Verification of Employment obtained through a 3rd party vendor such as, but not limited to TALX (The Work Number) except when:
    - The borrower works for an interested party to the transaction (Paystub and W-2s required)

Self-Employed

- Follow AUS tax return requirements.
  - In instances where DU/LPA allows for only 1-year tax returns on a self-employed borrower(s), the tax returns must be for the most recent tax year. A current year extension and the previous year's tax returns will not be accepted.
  - Documentation or evaluation is not required when a borrower or co-borrower is qualified using only income that is not derived from self-employment and self-employment is a secondary and separate source of income (or loss).

Amended Tax Returns- When tax returns are utilized for documenting income: (All Employment/Income Types):

- Tax returns amended within 90 days prior to the application date or at any time during the loan process with NewRez are not permitted.
- Tax returns amended greater than 90 days prior to the application date are permitted however, both the original and amended return must be examined for consistency with the previous filings to determine whether the use of the amended return is warranted. The following documentation will be required:

Back to Top

- A letter of explanation from the borrower detailing the reason for re-filing;
- Evidence of re-filing via tax transcript of amended return;
- Payment of and evidence of the ability to pay any applicable tax

Borrowers starting New Employment After Note Date: Borrowers who are changing or starting new jobs are permitted to close prior to the start of employment according to Agency requirements.
